CONFERENCES AT GUT KADEN

This former Knight's Estate, with its historic manor house and the newly built hotel and guest house, which has been carefully adapted to blend in with the existing buildings, offers a unique setting for meetings, conferences and seminars. The idyllic surroundings, with ancient trees, immaculately tended greens and historic ambience, offer peace and inspiration away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

On request, we would be happy to organise sporting activities as part of your conference. Be it a short introductory golf course during your lunch break, or a round of golf at the end of your day.
